

Don't just take our word for it, see what others have to say...

"It will be brilliant to be "in charge" of our website content now, and to be able to react to product and market changes instantly."

SUE JONES - The Battledown

"Applying what I learned has been successful already, moving from total obscurity to position five for 'cable ski' within one week of the course."

Will Gibney - WMSki.com

"It has been the most relevant and useful course I have been on for years, delivered at the just the right level by tutor - would definitely recommend to others and like to go on course no 2!!!"

Tricia Prince - www.hillcrest-cottage.co.uk

"The course was presented in a way that was easy for me to understand without complicated IT jargon. The practical exercises were invaluable and the techniques and information I learnt from the course enabled me to improve our website's natural Google listing dramatically and easily."

Angeline Fuller - Entire Credit

"I found the course very usefully indeed and it has had profound difference to my website. Since the course I have spent a lot of time improving and replacing many parts of my website and I am glad to inform you that it made major improvements to my rankings with Google. I did not realise that changing minor things like page titles, and meta tag would make such a difference."

Chris Cox - C K Kitchens

"The SEO course has given me the tools to improve the search results I get for my website www.cotswold-scenes.com What could have cost me a ££££s I learnt for free!"

James - Cotswold Scenes

"The course was useful and provided the motivation I needed to improve my web skills and spur me into action. I have already incorporated some of the things I learnt."

Peter V. Christensen. MIH. (Cheltenham Hospitality Association)
Chairman - Cheltenham Hospitality Association

"The course was interesting, enjoyable and most importantly worthwhile. Well done!"

Paul Moir (Rococo Garden - Painswick - Glos)

"We've now reached second place on one of our key phrase searches...need I say more?"

James Filmer - Cotswold Windows

"Informative course, I found it helpful to revisit the fundamentals of SEO in a focussed environment"
